Viola and her husband Fred live in White Rock, BC. Fred is a retired Baptist pastor. Viola has been employed in secretarial work, including being on the staff of a former Alberta premier – Premier Lougheed. In later years she taught as a relief instructor in Business Administration at Malaspina College in Nanaimo. Viola has authored seven books, details of which can be seen on her website. The Pahl's daughter, Susan, taught ESL in Japan, China, Australia, and Thailand. This explains the active interest the Pahl family has in ESL. Susan lives with her parents and teaches ESL to private students throughout the White Rock area.

NOTES TO ESL TEACHERS

Material on 1 John contains suggestions, charts, word analysis, etc. for teaching ESL. Doubtless many of the ideas outlined will give teachers a springboard for additional material to suit individual requirements. There may be people of different religious orientation in the class. The instructor must make it clear that he/she respects everyone's faith. This course, however, has so many variations, that it should not present problems to those of other faiths. I have tried to keep my statistics accurate, but since I am not a great mathematician, you may find a "numeric" error in the statistics on 1 John; however, the percentage of errors will be minimal.

If you want to have this material sent to you via e-mail attachments so you can manipulate it better than the PDF format and take it directly into your WORD, I would be happy to consider your request

HAVE A GREAT TIME TEACHING ESL – IT IS A REWARDING EXPERIENCE!
